

An invitation....

Conscientious Objection:

A right for all health professionals

As Victorian Parliament considers changes to abortion laws, health professionals are invited to hear the impact these proposed changes will have upon their clinical practice.

A unique opportunity is given to all health professionals to come to Queens Hall, Parliament House, Spring St Melbourne, to join with others to impress upon Parliament that conscientious objection is a right of all Victorian health professionals.

Session Details:      Monday 6th October, 2008
from 12.00 midday to 1.00pm

Bookings are essential. Entry to accredited guests only.

RSVP by Sunday 5th October.

Register under “Coming Events” on our website or call 9621 2663

Organised by www.doctorsconscience.org

*This forum aims at increasing awareness of these important public health and social issues for all health professionals.
Therefore this forum is not a ‘protest’ and it is expected that all present will be respectful.*